

Private Banking provides for the personal banking and wealth management needs of those individuals who have high household incomes and significant investable assets.

Private Banking is so much more than offering traditional banking services of deposits and loans — it is providing the personal one-to-one services that are essential after a certain level of wealth.

Our Private Bankers find creative solutions to complicated situations, assisting our affluent clients and their families manage their wealth today and develop new sources of wealth for future generations.

We utilize a team approach – turning to internal experts to assist in the areas of personal banking, commercial lending, mortgage lending, investment management, insurance, financial planning, fiduciary services, estate planning and brokerage services.

First American Bank Private Bankers also work closely with outside advisors including attorneys and CPAs to ensure coordinated efforts best meet our client's financial goals.

No matter what the need, First American Bank Private Bankers are capable and always ready to provide a very tailored approach to each Private Banking client.

If you would like to explore how you could benefit from Private Banking and Wealth Management services at First American Bank, please contact one of our Private Bankers.

Our Wealth Advisors work with you to help you create and grow wealth, protect and preserve wealth, pass wealth to others during your lifetime and distribute your financial assets wisely.